

John E. Garretson

Education:

- 1964 - Graduated Arizona State University with a major in Accounting
 - Won the Arizona Society of Public Accounts Award
 - Received the Beta Gamma Sigma Scholarship Key
 - Served as the ROTC Brigade Commander
 - Represented the State of Arizona in the Rhodes Scholarship contest

- 1968 - Graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with a Masters in Business Administration 1968

Work History:

- Served as a Lieutenant in the United States Army Finance Corp as the Finance Officer US Army 6th Region ARADCOM

- Worked for several companies in real estate and finance.

- Starting in 1976 managed family investments.

Service and Honorary:

- Served on the Board of Directors of the Arizona Museum, which became the Phoenix Museum of History.
 - Worked to help insure that the collection remained as a permanent part of the heritage of Phoenix.

- Phoenix Rotary 100 Member since 1979

Personal:

- Three children:
 - Matthew Garretson, New York
 - Caroline Garretson, Phoenix
 - Nicholas Garretson, Paradise Valley