

Lori Cameron

- Educated: Scotland, London, Florida... B.S.E.E. Florida Institute of Technology
- Specialized in 800 MHz radio systems, Video arraignment / conferencing, Private Electronic Networks, R.F.I.D.
- Project Manager G.E. Communications, Lynchburg Va. Projects throughout the U.S.
- Project Manager, then Director; Stottler, Stagg Architects and Engineering
- Formed ENPAT Inc, 1995 with former husband; Patent Licensing & Enforcement. Held the title of Executive Vice President and co-owner.

Volunteer experience:

Founding member and former V.P. of The Brevard Women's Center

American Heart Association: Chaired or Co-Chaired sponsorship committee

American Cancer Society: Chaired or Co-Chaired sponsorship committee

Crisis Services: Board Member and Chair of sponsorship and events committee

Brevard Symphony Orchestra: Board Member and former President, chairman of sponsorship and events

Aid for the Arts: Board member and former President

Holmes Regional Medical Center: Co-Chair hospital ball

Florida Tech: Steering committee, Ad Astra Society member

Melbourne Central Catholic School: Chairman of Sponsorship and events committee

University of Central Florida: Board Member of the High Tech Incubator program

U.S. Congressman David Weldon: Campaign fundraiser

U.S. Senator Bill Nelson: Campaign fundraiser

Rotary Club of Leven: Youth programs, several fund raising projects

Eau Gallie Rotary: Several fund raising projects

Phoenix Rotary 100: I.O.C.

Over the years, I have been involved in several organizations similar to those listed above.

We have 2 homes in Scotland, where I spend most of the summer, but I am flexible in my travel time.
We have a home in Anacortes, WA; however, Phoenix is our primary residence.

My hobbies:

Travel

Wine

Single Malt Whisky

Horse riding... my horse is in Scotland

Shopping

Spoiling my grand children

Reading

Research

Golf..... We are members of the Phoenix Country Club